INTRO

Matt Bolton is a modern day one-man-band show using live-on-the-spot created loops and technology with a contemporary pop, classic rock, roots-rock vibe and feel. Often with hints of retro electronic, rock, reggae, and funk, he combines guitar, bass sounds, keyboards, synth, mic and live vocal sounds to create a full band sound and feel. Matt picks from a seemingly endless collection of covers and originals to create an unforgettable live performance in which his ingenuity in looping magically reproduces the feel and energy of a complete band with absolutely no pre-recorded background tracks. Having played in touring bands with some legendary musicians, Todd Rundgren, Bill Kreutzmann (Grateful Dead), and with weekly residency gigs at the Bay Area's most coveted venues (Carneros Resort Napa, The Fillmore SF Poster Room, Bartlett Hall Union Square, etc.) Matt plays 200+ shows a year all over the country.

PRESS

"He can sound like a small combo or a symphony orchestra...on stage all by himself, singing, strumming acoustic guitar, stomping on foot pedals, adding drum fills, keyboard parts, bass lines, vocal harmonies. Nothing was prerecorded, he explained at one point. He said he was creating the music right there in front of us, in the moment. It was, quite frankly, astounding"

-Paul Liberatore - Marin Independent Journal
